

THE SANTA FE CATALOGUE®

COMPLIMENTARY

SPRING/SUMMER 2007

FINE ART | FASHION | HOME FURNISHINGS | JEWELRY

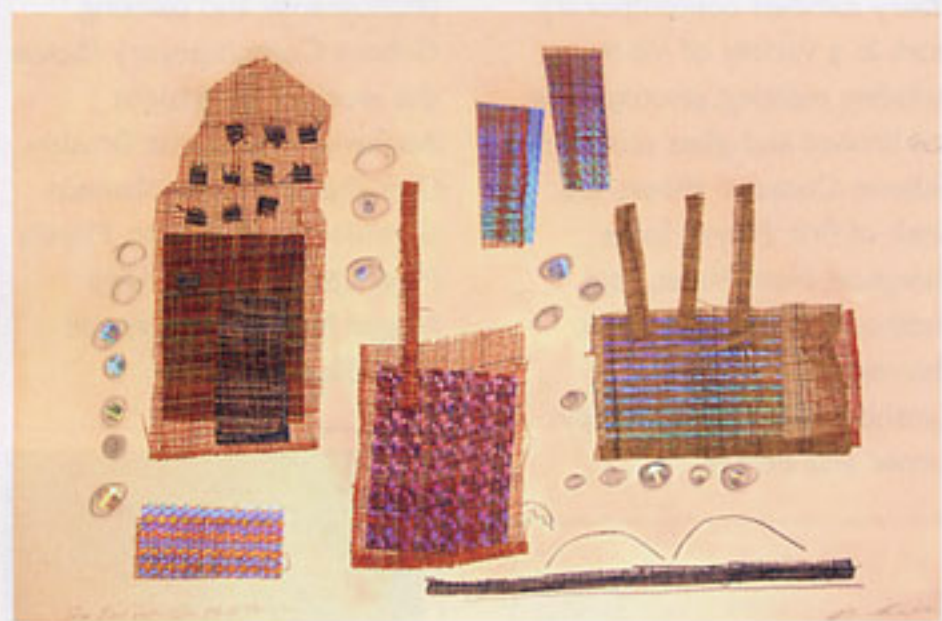

thecatalogues.com

BEST OF SHOW

SPRING/SUMMER 2007

THE SANTA FE CATALOGUE®

"The Pearl District in Plaidtown," Katharine Kagel
Café Pasqual's Gallery

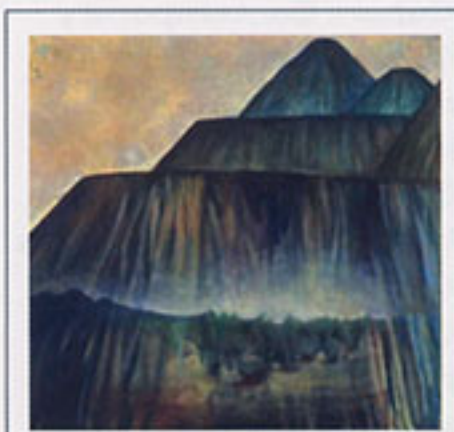

Han dynasty horse
Shangxi Province, China
Bosshard Furnishings
& Ethnographica

Café Pasqual's Gallery

Café Pasqual's Gallery features eclectic, unique works including the micaceous cooking pots of Felipe Ortega and the paintings of Leovigildo Martinez. The gallery also represents Daniel Duford, Brian Grossnickle, Enrique Flores, Tom Freund, LeeAnn Herreid, Katharine Kagel, Kitty Leaken, Rodolfo Morales and David Parsons. Owner and chef Katharine Kagel's latest cookbook, Cooking with Café Pasqual's (Ten Speed Press), is now available.

Bosshard Furnishings & Ethnographica

A longtime direct importer of art, artifacts, fine furnishings and accessories from around the world, the Bosshard showroom in the historic Railyard District is a favorite of discerning homeowners, collectors and designers. Every item in the collection is hand-picked for quality, beauty, craftsmanship and authenticity. Also exhibited is an ongoing showcase of contemporary works by some of New Mexico's most exciting artists and a selection of "Forever Flora" arrangements. The Santa Fe showroom is open daily. Visits to the Abiquiú warehouse are by appointment only.

"Scoria," Sarah Kucerova
Carol Kucera Gallery

Carol Kucera Gallery

Carol Kucera Gallery features "new art for a new century" — contemporary paintings, sculpture, glass and ceramics inspired by the elegance of the physical universe — and explores the meeting of art and science. Artists represented include John Dodero, Dan Fogelberg, Mike Holberg, Carol Kucera, Sarah Kucerova, Richard Rozinski, Catherine Tempelman and Dierk Van Keppel.

Losa horned headdress
Casa Nova

Casa Nova

Casa Nova shows an eclectic blend of design objects from around the world, including studio jewelry, custom bedding, fine art, Ardmore ceramics, African masks, Japanese screens by Yoshiaki Yuki and Japanese ceramics. If you're looking for world-class design that is traditional, ethnic or contemporary, you'll find it at Casa Nova, in the historic Railyard District. Casa Nova shows the work of Melanie DeLuca, Coreen Cordova, Charles Birnbaum, Moussa Albaka, Norman Catherine, Takashi Hinoda and Michael Jerry.

"Tricycle," Stephen Coyle
Dorothy Rogers Fine Art

Dorothy Rogers Fine Art

For more than 30 years, Dorothy Rogers has been helping people select art that pleases them and will continue to please them for decades to come. Rogers has curated an eclectic group of artists into her Design Center gallery, including watercolorist Grace Burleigh; printmaker Ann Chernow; painter Stephen Coyle; clothing designer Ann Gati; copper wire sculptor David Murano; whimsical wire sculptor Jean Noon; African life tapestry designer Chief Z. O. Oloruntoba; and the late New Orleans painter Edwin Keiffer.

A FUSION OF ART, CULTURE AND LIVING

CONTEMPORARY AFRICAN ART

Zulu Telephone Wire Basket

Toguna - White Stool

Fang Mask - Gabon

Barbara Jackson Pot

CASA NOVA

by Natalie

HISTORIC RAILYARD

530 South Guadalupe Street, Suite E • Santa Fe, New Mexico 87501 • Map #61

505.983.8558 • info@casanovagallery.com • casanovagallery.com • Open Monday through Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm